

To the intention of Swift
Patrol
PATROUILLE SWIFT
Immatriculation: United states
31240 SAINT-JEAN
FRANCE

Internal circular

Purpose: Global S

Initiated by: Head of Engineering

PC No: 78H-512/9144

Change: French translation

22 February PP584 Initial invoice is not honored

11 March Owner proposed and failed to communicate with Safran before opening a legal issue.

16 March Order of the decreased second choice budget + eventual formalities assistance for authorization of flight in Europe by the FAA. Owner was accepted and validated terms & rights right of the study delivered March 24 relative to the protocol of conversion of small elements for a Globe swift up to *, * 30.61 €.

29 March Expedition of the Globeswift wings in non-isolated intermediate phase with the formal recommendation do not to fly with the device.

14 April DGAC presentation not carried out by the owner for aesthetic/ insulation reasons

May End of the conversion. The owner makes his observations as inappropriate for his use and keeps the material. Although the best conditions were met for conversion, a satisfactory level of asepsis could not be achieved without, however, limiting its functioning.

27 May Although BOD offered to finance the cost of the work to thank the owner of his investigation against Safran and to prevent him from a legal procedure not ensuring that the points raised by the observation. This was put in place as of Monday May 30, with a due date provided in September.

4 July, Globe swift owner calls a client company and a physical person where it appears to have been held false and unjustified allegations that have inconvenienced the interlocutors. So as to disturb the actual situation of the amicable procedure for the likely purpose to accelerate a refund and / or intentionally harm the reputation of ELISA.

8 August Owner confirms that he has filed a complaint against Elisa in respect of: Prosecution Accordingly, BOD canceled the formalities for the amicable financing offers 27 May scheduled in 15 September and place his request in accordance with the strict terms of the order such as;

"Under an official procedure, I shall be obliged to apply strictly the terms and to take all legal remedies available in law and equity for their application. Nothing in this letter shall be interpreted as a waiver or surrender of all rights and remedies available. "

As a result,

October 21 Paypal has ruled inadmissible the owner's claim and all allowances have been canceled